

Open position at ENSAE-CREST in Paris Assistant Professor in Quantitative Finance

About ENSAE and CREST

The School of Statistics and Economics ENSAE (École Nationale de la Statistique et de l'Administration Économique) is a leading French Higher Education Institution in the fields of Economics, Statistics and Finance. ENSAE is a founder member of Paris Institute of Technology (ParisTech), a cluster of some of France's most prestigious "Grandes Écoles" including Ecole Polytechnique, HEC. ENSAE's research is conducted within CREST, the Center for Research in Economics and Statistics.

Job Description

ENSAE calls for applications for the position of Assistant Professor in Quantitative Finance with tenure track, starting in September 2011.

Applicant profile:

- Applicants must have completed their PhD by September 2011
- Publications or strong potential of publications in academic journals of international standing
- Teaching experience

Knowledge of French is not required but valued.

Application package:

- Curriculum vitae
- Cover letter with statement of research interest
- Job market papers (plus some other research papers)
- Names of three academic references willing to provide letters of recommendation
- Report of teaching experience

The application package should be sent in electronic format to recruitment@ensae.fr by February 28, 2011.

For more information, please contact

- Jean-David Fermanian, Professor of Finance: jean-david.fermanian@ensae.fr

- Elise Coudin, Graduate Director: elise.coudin@ensae.fr

For general information about ENSAE and CREST: www.ensae.fr and www.crest.fr.