

Position in Economics at ENSAE Paris-CREST

ENSAE Paris and CREST are currently inviting applications for a position of Associate or Full Professor in Economics.

The appointment starts on September 1, 2022. Salary is competitive according to qualifications. The teaching duties are competitive and reduced compared to French university standards. The position is permanent.

Candidate Profile

- PhD in Economics.
- Outstanding research.
- Publications in leading international journals in Economics.
- Depending on her/his profile, the successful candidate is expected to demonstrate an ability to teach courses in public economics and public policy, in at least one of its fields of application (environment, trade, labor, IO, political economy ...), and its methods (econometrics, machine learning). She/he is also expected to supervise applied projects.

Applications should be submitted in French or in English by email to recruitment@ensae.fr and should contain:

- Curriculum vitae ;
- Statement of research and teaching interests ;
- Names and addresses of three or more individuals willing to provide letters of reference.

Applications will be considered as they come and the process will continue until the position is filled.

Selected candidates will be invited to present their work and project at ENSAE-CREST.

Contact persons

- Francis Kramarz, ENSAE Research Director : francis.kramarz@ensae.fr
- Frédéric Loss, head of graduate studies at ENSAE : frederic.loss@ensae.fr

ENSAE Paris is part of the group GENES (Groupe des écoles nationales d'économie et statistique), a public institution of higher education and research specialized in economics, statistics, finance and sociology. CREST (center for research in economics and statistics) is a joint research unit between CNRS, GENES and Ecole Polytechnique, covering the same scientific fields.

GENES recruits, employs, and promotes regardless of race, religion, color, national origin, sex, disability or age as required by applicable law.